PRIVACY NOTICE

The Northern Ireland Police Fund Regulation 2016 established The Northern Ireland Police Fund (the Fund) as a body corporate for the purpose of providing financial assistance, advice, support and care to eligible persons in connection with the objectives in section 11 of the Financial Provisions Act (NI) 2014.

The role of the Fund is to provide care and financial assistance to police officers and ex-officers who have been injured or disabled as a direct result of terrorism, and to the widows, widowers and families of police officers killed or injured through terrorism. This includes PSNI officers who may be killed or injured in the future in this way.

We support our clients through our schemes which are designed to enable them to enjoy a quality of life in their home and make a positive long-term impact on their circumstances.

Requests/Enquires:

We will process your personal information as follows:

- NIPF will process the personal data you provide in order to respond to your enquiry and to fulfil its responsibilities necessary for NIPF to perform public tasks.
- NIPF will process the personal data you provide, and any other relevant information, to investigate, action and resolve your concerns as part of our statutory duties and public tasks.
- NIPF will process your personal data and any other relevant information, including special category personal data, where it is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend legal claims against the NIPF.
- NIPF may share this data with third parties such as our solicitors, Department of Justice, HM Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS), and other legal professionals where it is necessary for the purpose of legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice or otherwise establishing, exercising or defending legal rights, or as required by a rule of law.

Processing of Special Categories of Data:

We process data concerning your health in order to:

- Establish eligibility; and to
- Support our clients through Occupational Medicine.

The Legal Basis for this processing is Art 13 (g) GDPR: Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

The legal basis for NIPF processing your personal data as above, and NIPF will always meet at least one of the following bases within the UK General Data Protection regulation (UK GDPR) but not limited to:
